TEXAS HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

House Membership

Representative Rob Eissler

Biographical Information

Rob Eissler is the President of Eissler and Associates, an executive recruiting firm based in his hometown of more than twenty years, The Woodlands, Texas. He received a B.A. in Architecture from Princeton University, and then went on to serve his country as a carrier-based attack pilot on the USS John F. Kennedy in the United States Navy.

Rob Eissler has spent the last twenty years dedicated to the public education system of Texas, the last 18 of which have been on the Conroe Independent School District Board of Trustees, including two terms as President. He has served as a Junior Achievement Teacher for The Woodlands High School and Knox Junior High since 1993.

In 1999, he was named one of 25 "Original Hometown Heroes" for The Woodlands by The Woodlands Villager/Courier newspapers and The Woodlands Operating Company, L.P. The Chamber of Commerce named him "Citizen of the Year" in 1999, where he served as the Chairman of the Board in 1988. Mr. Eissler has also served as the President of the Woodlands Rotary Club and as a board member of the South Montgomery Y.M.C.A. He has been coaching youth sports for the past twenty years and is well known as the one of the voices of High School Football on the local radio broadcast of area games.

Mr. Eissler has been active in the campaigns of many area elected officials and has served as campaign treasurer for Congressman Kevin Brady since 1990. Rob Eissler was elected to represent District 15 as State Representative in November of 2002. As a freshman State Representative, he has been appointed to the following committees: Public Education, Licensing and Administrative Procedures and Rules and Resolutions.

Rob and his wife, Linda, have three adult children. They are members of The Woodlands United Methodist Church.
